Friendly Inter School Competition in English Recitation, Elocution and Debate

Friendly Interschool Competition in English Recitation, Elocution and Debate was held in the school on 27th October 2007.

Students from Kendriya Vidyalaya, Rajkumar College, B M Kyada International School, MSB Educational Institute, Sunflower School, Jay International School, Dalmiya Public School, Sutrapada and DPS Rajkot participated in the competition. Our students gave stupendous performance bagging positions in all three categories. Aashta Patel (Class V) stood first in the Recitation Competition, Shivang Bhatia (Class VI) stood first in the Elocution Competition and Smit Dixit (Class X) stood second in the Debate Competition.

Rev. Fr. Joseph, Principal, Christ College was the Chief Guest on the occasion. Dr. Fatima Sugarwala, Head of the Department, Kansagra College and Ms Rohini Bholia, English Department, Kundalia B. Ed. College decided the winners. Mr Charles Moras, Principal, MSB Educational Institute remained present on the occasion.

The Chief Guest declared the programme a success and hoped that DPS Rajkot would continue giving quality education.

The judges opined that such programmes were like a breath of fresh air. Mr. Manoj Dubey, Principal, DPS Rajkot informed that the idea behind bringing schools together for such a programme was to provide an opportunity to the students to build their confidence in public speaking skills.

Be the change you want to see.
